This Year's Theme: The Ten Blessings

(Matt. 5:3-12)

Eternal happiness- we wish for it. We all want to experience the Lord's blessings. Yet, sometimes the pathway to real lasting happiness can be astonishingly counter-intuitive! Instead of making assumptions about what we think will make us happy, we need to allow the Lord to show us.

As the Lord begins the Sermon on the Mount, He provides us with a Divine list of ten qualities we must embody in order to experience the eternal blessings of heaven. Some things on this list may seem more obvious. Others may cause us to rethink our approach to life and the question, "Where does lasting happiness really come from?" Come, learn, discuss, and apply to life!

"This camp is a little slice of heaven."
